

GALLIGAN'S TOE DOWNS PARK FIELD

Payne Field Lientenant Boots
Two Field Goals Through
Bars—Final Score 12 to 0.

BY BOB PIGUE.
Lieut. Galligan's educated toe proved the downfall of the Park field flyers Saturday afternoon at the Payne field. The smart digit of the Payne field halfback booted over a couple of field goals which were sufficient to defeat the local aviators. In addition to the two field goals, there was a touchdown which made the total score 12 to 0 for the West Pointers.

From the first whistle the Payne field team looked unusually strong, and the local flyers made many futile efforts to gain through their line, which boasted of 200 pounds to the man. Payne field got started early in the game and made gain after gain against the Stomachs. In the first period, with the ball in mid-field, Galligan booted, and Ewing returned a few yards. Then a line play was attempted, resulting in a fumble, and Payne field man recovered the ball, which was now on the 20-yard line. Lieut. Galligan went what his toe could do, and he dropped back and drop-kicked a beautiful field goal through the bars, being afforded abundant protection. This was the first score of the afternoon, 3-0 for the Payne flyers.

Payne Field Starts.
Payne field, having tasted the sweet rector of victory, started in super-dreadnought fashion and a series of line plays soon laid the Park field's goal territory. Park field lost the ball on another fumble, and with Dougherty carrying the ball, Payne field swept up the field like a Kansas cyclone. Dougherty punting across with a touchdown, Payne field missed kicking goal. The score stood 9-0 at the end of the first period.

In the second period the two teams were hard at it, each going after the other's goal. Park field made its best showing in this period, and the Payne field's goal territory was again threatened. Payne field, who had been a thorn in the side of the Park field, was now a thorn in the side of the Payne field. The game was a close one, but as fate would have it, the whistle for the ending of the first half blew, which denied Payne field of the best chance it had to score during the entire game.

In the second half the game got rougher and rougher, as Park field was determined to go over the goal line of the Payne flyers. The game was a close one, but as fate would have it, the whistle for the ending of the first half blew, which denied Payne field of the best chance it had to score during the entire game.

Park Field's Dying Effort.
Park field made a dying effort and a great forward pass, but the ball almost in the shadow of the Payne field goal line. A few more bucks and the ball would be in the hands of the teamkeepers. The game was a close one, but as fate would have it, the whistle for the ending of the first half blew, which denied Payne field of the best chance it had to score during the entire game.

FINANCES AND BALL CLUB.
If a report from Boston be true, the Braves last season in order to have broken even would have had to play a business of something like $18,000. Of this there were salaries of $15,000 each for President Haughton and Manager Stalings; $7,000 for Business Manager Hapgood; and $12,000 for Captain Rogers. Salaries of the other players reached about $30,000 and the Braves field and other expenses were fully $15,000. One domestic figure that it would have taken an attendance of 270,000 spectators during the season to cover this huge expenditure. But this domestic figure is a bit out of the share of the ongoing club at home and abroad, which would make the attendance of 500,000 a well-earned figure. No wonder, then, that the Braves backers find themselves in a hole.

THE MODERN CIGAR

The Sporting Spotlight By Bob Pigue

The defeat of Georgia Tech by Glenn Warner's Pittsburgh Panthers Saturday did not come in the nature of a big surprise to football followers, who realized that the Georgia Tech which played Pitt Saturday has been downing all comers during the past four years.

Couch John Heisman's Golden Tornadoes were a shell of their old selves, with the stars of other days in the army or otherwise among the missing. But Coach Heisman did not refuse to meet the Pitt aggregation because of the fact that his stars were gone. He believed in his machine and the name of the Golden Tornado would make of his men super-men. But they were overwhelmed, outplayed and outgeneraled, which is the answer to their defeat.

The sympathies of Dixie football fans were with Tech, naturally, but their judgment was that Pitt would be a hard nut for the Georgians to crack, as such they proved.

Tech, though defeated, went down with colors flying, and will now prepare for the next season, but now a crack at the Pitt team, when the Golden Tornadoes are at their best.

JEFF KAYOS FLU.
Jim Jeffries, once heavyweight champion of the world, met the stiffest opponent of his career a few days ago, when he was attacked by Battling Infilaz, who has a longer knockout list than anybody anywhere, not excepting Jack Dempsey.

Jeff was now reported on the road to recovery.

WATKINS CONVERTED.
Tom Watkins, chief secretary and a leading Dixie baseball man, has been converted. When peace was first declared, Tom was pessimistic regarding the opening for next season, but now it is all changed. Tom is as enthusiastic a baseball booster as anybody and he is now waiting until he can lead a flock of chicks for the 1919 race.

HERE'S YOUR HAT, BOB.
When the Southern association meets next month, they're going to elect a new president to succeed Bob Baugh, who is not as the name implies, a business reason, but that he didn't have time to devote to the affairs of the league presidency. But the truth is, the matter is that Baugh sees the handwriting on the wall and is ready to go home and abroad, which would make the attendance of 500,000 a well-earned figure. No wonder, then, that the Braves backers find themselves in a hole.

THEY'RE COMING BACK.
All of the old Southern league players want to come back, and now that the war is over, they're hurrying down a line to the club owners about next season.

GEORGIA TECH DEFEATED BY PANTHERS

Great Game Staged at Forbes Field and Marks First Downfall of Georgians.

FORBES FIELD, PITTSBURGH, Nov. 25.—John Heisman's Golden Tornadoes were completely stomped here Saturday afternoon when they met the Pittsburgh Panthers, who overcame the Georgians by the score of 22 to 0. Both teams played a wonderful brand of football, but the superiority of the Panthers was evident after the first kickoff and touchdown after touchdown.

The running of Tom Davies, the Panther left halfback, was sensational. He ran for 100 yards and scored a touchdown, and the point was taken. Memphis is being given a brand of football that is new to the city. The Panthers, as usual, were successful in getting through the center, although Coach Warner worked that play much less than usual.

Pitt indulged in forward passing considerably and very frequently. The game was a dangerous time for the visitors.

Toward the end of the game the best work of Tech was displayed in their ability to intercept forward passes and twice they were rewarded from a dangerous situation by the ability of Guyon and Flowers to take the forward passes meant for a Pitt player.

NORMAL DEFEATS UNION 18 TO 6

S. A. T. C.'s Break Losing Streak by Good Victory.

JACKSON, Tenn., Nov. 25 (AP).—With Farnsworth in the game, Memphis Normal's gridiron warriors proved to be the superior of the crowd which Sharp End sent into the game Saturday afternoon, taking the contest by a score of 18 to 6. At that, it was a good game and kept the crowd on its toes.

Union kicked off to Normal and then held them for downs as a starter. Before the first quarter was completed, Farnsworth had scored a touchdown, closing the first period with the score 6 to 0 in favor of Union. In the second quarter, Normal was penalized for hurrying when they had the ball on Union's line. Williams, playing right guard for Normal, was taken out and Melroe substituted. Shortly afterward Farnsworth carried the ball across the goal and tied the score in a knot. Sewell failed to kick goal in the third quarter. Farnsworth scored again, getting the ball across by a very narrow margin when Farnsworth threw him. Crawford made the last touchdown for the Memphis aggregation by going around Union's end.

Union could not hold the Normal line. Farnsworth occupied the spotlight position for the Memphis with "Tad" Sewell running the team and putting in some good ticks himself. The Jackson boy broke up one of Normal's attempts at a forward pass.

Moore and Leake, Normal ends, both on a good game. Dukes was shifted to full and started.

Hunt for Union completed a forward pass for a good gain. Weaver played a star game and demonstrated his qualifications as a half back (O'Rourke, who is new to Union, also was on the right man for the place and upset the calculation of his adversary frequently.)

The lineup: Position Union. Bennett, Moore, L. E. Water. Cornelia L. T. Bladen.

NEBRASKA VS. KANSAS.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 25.—To-morrow whether the University of Nebraska or Kansas Agricultural college wins, it will claim the football championship of the Missouri valley conference.

The athletic management of the University of Nebraska today began plans to arrange a game between the two aggregations at Camp Funston, Dec. 14.

The football coach was finishing his instructions to his players just before the big game.

"And, remember, men," he said, "this is an all-important factor in your favor. You are all veterans. In fact, some of you have been playing almost a week."

BALL AGAINST TAFT.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25.—Phil de-7 Ball, president of the St. Louis American league baseball club, said today that he had not informed the plan of Harry Heupstead, of the New York Nationals, and Harry Frazee, of the Boston Americans, to have former President W. H. Taft serve as a "con-man" national commissioner. He said he had received a telegram signed by Frazee and Heupstead asking him to wire Mr. Taft his approval.

"I did not wire him," said Mr. Ball. "I think Mr. Taft has the finest judicial mind in the country, and he is all respects a great man. But I object to seeing Messrs. Heupstead and Frazee's place washed on me in any such off-hand manner. Frazee has no authority from anyone to submit such a proposition on behalf of the American league. Until the league meets and discusses any plan it obviously has no official standing. Any changes of policy will be effected at the league's meeting early in December."

NUNAMAKER IN NAVY.
Leslie Nunamaker, big league catcher, who was relieved of army service because of a bad knee, but determined he might be of some use at that and so joined the navy aviation service, has been ordered to duty at a Southern training school and reports that the knee doesn't bother him a bit no matter how high he has to be.

NOTICE! The United States Government Says:
Herald Bureau, No. 1502 H Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., Saturday.

Troops now in the United States will be mustered out at the rate of 30,000 a day when the demobilization machinery now being set up by the war department gets in full operation. This announcement was made today by General March, chief of staff.

Orders already have been issued for the discharge of 200,000 men within the next two weeks.

Under present laws every man who is discharged from the whole army is entitled to wear his uniform for a period of three months; that is a very necessary thing, because the releasing to civil life of three or four million men makes it impossible to clothe in civilian clothes so great a number. So there will be a period of readjustment during which they will be wearing their uniforms.

But we have prepared for this and have been running our shop full force since the signing of the armistice, and we are in a position to clothe every man that comes into our stores, both in suits and overcoats.

Warning to the Public—there IS a very great shortage of ready-to-wear clothing and we ADVISE you to buy your suit and overcoat now, because when our Great American Army return to their native shore they MUST be clothed and with the great shortage in woollens ready-to-wear stocks will be depleted very quickly. BUY NOW.

TAFT WILLING TO HELP MAJOR LEAGUES
Only in Professional, Legal Way, However, Says Former President of U. S.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—It was reported here last night that William H. Taft issued yesterday at Watersbury, Conn., the following statement concerning the request that he should act as an arbitrator in organized baseball.

"Heupstead and Mr. Frazee called on me Saturday to ask me if I would consider acting as arbitrator between the National and American leagues in matters involving the legal construction of contracts between the leagues and their application to transactions between them as they might arise. I told them that I did not practice law, as an advocate in courts, but I had acted as arbitrator in several cases.

"I said that if they would write me a description of the kind of arbitration in which they wished me to act and the particular function they wished me to perform, I would consider it and advise them. I could not act except as a judge of law and fact, or any way take part in management of their association. It must be a strictly legal, professional character.

"I said further that I wished to consult my brother-in-law, Charles E. Hughes, president of the Brooklyn baseball club yesterday, sent a telegram to William H. Taft, saying that Mr. Hughes and his associates of the Brooklyn club earnestly hoped that Mr. Taft would accept the office of national commissioner of major league baseball. Mr. Hughes assured Mr. Taft of his unqualified support."

EBBETS WANTS HIM.
NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Charles E. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn baseball club yesterday, sent a telegram to William H. Taft, saying that Mr. Ebbets and his associates of the Brooklyn club earnestly hoped that Mr. Taft would accept the office of national commissioner of major league baseball. Mr. Ebbets assured Mr. Taft of his unqualified support."
